FACTUAL FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Having reviewed the Amended Complaint, Plaintiffs' filings in support of the Motion, and the entire record herein, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

A. The Publishers are leading publishers in the United States that represent a broad cross-section of the publishing industry. Each year, the Publishers publish many books ranging from textbooks, fiction and non-fiction trade books, reference books, and tutorial and guide books. The Publishers also invest significant time and monies into publishing their books, including in content creation and in the support, advertising, marketing, and promotion of their books in the United States. The Publishers' books are widely available for sale in the United States, including from the Publishers' direct sales channels, online marketplaces, and online and physical bookstores. The Publishers, including in some instances their predecessors, have invested decades of effort in building trusted reputations in the publishing industry, which consumers associate with the Publishers and the trademarks under which their works are published. These trademarks have become associated in the public mind with the Publishers' histories and reputations for publishing quality works.

B. The Publishers own or are the exclusive licensees in the United States of the copyrights in the works they publish or the derivative works described in Exhibit A to the Amended Complaint, which is attached hereto as Appendix A (the "Authentic Works"). The Authentic Works are protected by registrations issued by the U.S. Copyright Office.

C. The Trademark Plaintiffs are the owners, exclusive licensees, and/or registrants of their respective trademarks described in Exhibit B to the Amended Complaint, which is attached hereto as Appendix B (the "Marks"). The Marks are registered on the Principal Register of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

D. Through their counterfeiting operations, Defendants have reproduced and/or distributed counterfeit copies of the Publishers' books, including the Authentic Works, bearing unauthorized reproductions of the Marks, in massive quantities. Many of the counterfeit books at issue are imported into the United States from India through the Port of New York and New Jersey. Defendants use a web of online accounts and financial accounts, with varying contact information, to distribute their counterfeit books through multiple sales channels in the United States, including online storefronts they operate on online marketplaces and online buyback portals operated by national book distributors. Defendants have no license, authorization, or consent from the Publishers or the Trademark Plaintiffs to make copies of their books, distribute counterfeit copies of their books, or use the Marks in any way.

E. Defendants have willfully infringed the Publishers' copyrights in the Authentic Works in connection with their knowing reproduction and/or distribution of counterfeit copies thereof. Defendants are liable for willful copyright infringement under the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq.

F. Defendants have willfully infringed the Trademark Plaintiffs' Marks by knowingly using in commerce, without authorization, identical or substantially indistinguishable reproductions thereof in connection with the sale, offering for sale, distribution, and/or advertising of infringing copies of Authentic Works. Defendants are liable for willful trademark counterfeiting under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114(1)(a) and 1127.

G. Plaintiffs have been irreparably harmed as a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct and will continue to be irreparably harmed should Defendants be allowed to continue reproducing copyrighted works owned or exclusively controlled by Publishers and Trademark Plaintiffs' Marks and distributing counterfeit copies of copyrighted works owned or exclusively controlled by Publishers and using the Marks in connection therewith.

H. The balance of potential harm to Defendants, if any, by being prevented from continuing to profit from their infringing activities is far outweighed by the harm to the Plaintiffs, their businesses, and the value associated with their copyrights and trademarks if injunctive relief is not issued.

I. The public interest favors issuance of injunctive relief to protect Plaintiffs' interests in their intellectual property rights and protect the public from the harm caused by Defendants' infringement, including the potential that consumers will be confused and deceived into believing, incorrectly, that they are purchasing authentic copies of the Publisher's books.

J. Defendants have been properly served in this action with the Complaint, Amended Complaint, and accompanying Summons. Because Defendants have not filed Answers or otherwise responded to the Complaint or the Amended Complaint, or otherwise appeared in this action, the Clerk of Court entered default against Defendants on January 29, 2024.

K. In the Amended Preliminary Injunction, the Court has already found that it has personal jurisdiction over Defendants pursuant to Section 302(a) of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules ("N.Y. C.P.L.R."). The grounds for that finding, as set forth in the Amended Preliminary Injunction, continue to apply.

STATUTORY DAMAGES AWARD

C.P.L.R. § 5222-a (“Exemption Request”). Additionally, in the event Plaintiffs discover money or other financial assets belonging to Defendants in any accounts that are not currently restrained, Plaintiffs may continue to serve this Order on Financial Institutions, together with the relevant information known to Plaintiffs identifying Defendants’ accounts, and such Financial Institutions shall cease transferring, withdrawing, or otherwise disposing of any money or other assets in such accounts and, within thirty (30) days following actual notice of this Order, shall release such money or other assets to Plaintiffs in full or partial satisfaction of the damages set forth herein, unless the relevant Defendant(s) has filed with the Court and served upon Plaintiffs’ counsel an Exemption Request.

deliver to Plaintiffs for destruction all counterfeit copies of Plaintiffs' Copyrighted Works, including but not limited to the Authentic Works, or derivative works thereof, that Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and all those in active concert or participation with any of them, have in their possession, custody, or control, and all devices by means of which such copies have been created, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 503 and 15 U.S.C. § 1118.
